

BAKERY INGREDIENTS SINCE 1904

For five decades New Zealand Bakels have supplied "Ingredients for Inspiration" to the baking and food industries providing "Total Solutions" for our customers with quality products, service and innovation.

With our fingers on the pulse of research & development and access to global resources you can be assured of superior products that will offer your business ongoing value. Truly great products stand the test of time and, now 55 years on, we are still being appreciated by bakers around the world introducing new innovations while exceeding the expected quality our international brand represents.

Along with excellence in service and support New Zealand Bakels continue to offer our customers

- Extensive range of quality ingredients
- Development of customised products
- Packaging solutions to suit individual customer needs
- Designing, manufacturing, commissioning and servicing of automated bulk liquid systems
- Technical support from a trade-qualified national sales team
- Training and trouble-shooting
- Recipe and data service
- Superior customer service, account management and distribution

Dear Valued Customer, we are dedicated to your success and surpassing our industries potential. I personally welcome your contact, and feedback, at any time.

Best Regards,
